

Call for Papers

Workshop on Sports, Economics, and Natural Experiments

June 24th, 2024; 10am-6pm
University of Zurich, Switzerland

Topics of Interest: Sports markets, games and their contexts can provide ideal natural experiments to test theories of behavioral microeconomics. We seek studies that analyze new natural experiments from sports, studies which compare the findings from natural experiments across multiple sports, types of contestants, country, culture, etc., and (quasi) replication studies of any kind.

Submission Deadline: Researchers interested in presenting at the workshop are invited to submit an extended abstract (1 page) of their papers by email to sene@business.uzh.ch before midnight on March 15th, 2024. Authors will be informed of their acceptance within two weeks of the deadline.

Frontiers in Behavioral Economics: Special Issue

If you plan to submit to the special issue (deadline August 31st, 2024) associated with this event, then we would especially like to welcome you to Zurich and hear about your work in progress. However, we also welcome papers for the workshop that will not be submitted to the special issue, and we welcome submissions to the issue that are not presented at the workshop. Two full publishing fee waivers for the special issue will be distributed to papers presented at the workshop, with priority given to junior scholars.

 frontiers | Research Topics

Sports, Economics, and Natural Experiments:
Advances and Retrospection

Open for submissions >

Scientific Committee: Raphael Flepp (University of Zurich), Romain Gauriot (Deakin University), & Carl Singleton (University of Stirling)

Center for Research in Sports Administration (CRSA): The CRSA is a scientific network with the goal to support and coordinate top-level academic research in sports management, sports economics, sports administration, and adjacent areas at the University of Zurich. www.crsa.uzh.ch